2001 ASSEMBLY BILL 919

March 14, 2002 - Introduced by Representative BLACK. Referred to Committee on Campaigns and Elections.

1 AN ACT to repeal 11.01 (5m), 11.05 (9) (b), 11.06 (11), 11.24 (1m) and 11.26 (12m);
2 to renumber 11.05 (9) (a); to amend 11.05 (3) (n), 11.38 (1) (a) 3. and 11.50 (2)
3 (b) 5.; and to repeal and recreate 11.05 (9) (title) of the statutes; relating to:
4 treatment of contributions of money made by individuals or organizations
5 acting as conduits.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, if an individual or organization receives a political contribution consisting of money and transfers the contribution to another individual or organization without exercising discretion as to the amount transferred and the individual to whom or the organization to which the transfer is made, the contribution is considered to be made by the original contributor for purposes of reporting by the ultimate recipient. The contribution is also treated as an individual contribution for purposes of determining contribution limitations and qualifying contributions for public grants. The individual or organization making the transfer is called a "conduit" under the law. In most cases, a conduit is required to register and file campaign finance reports unless the conduit does not transfer any contributions to candidates or to personal campaign, legislative campaign, or political party committees.

This bill treats a contribution of money transferred by a conduit as a contribution from the conduit rather than from the individual contributor for purposes of reporting by the ultimate recipient and for purposes of determining contribution limitations and qualifying contributions for public grants. Thus, under this bill, a contribution of money that is transferred by a conduit that is a committee is included within the overall limitation on contributions that a candidate may derive from public grants and from contributions received from committees. In addition, these contributions may not be used to qualify for a public grant.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 11.01 (5m) of the statutes is repealed.

2 SECTION 2. 11.05 (3) (n) of the statutes is amended to read:

3 11.05 (3) (n) In the case of a labor organization, or separate segregated fund
4 under s. 11.38 (1) (a) 2. ~~or conduit established by a labor organization~~, a statement
5 as to whether the organization is incorporated, and if so, the date of incorporation
6 and whether or not such incorporation is under ch. 181.

7 SECTION 3. 11.05 (9) (title) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

8 11.05 (9) (title) DEPOSIT OF CONTRIBUTIONS.

9 SECTION 4. 11.05 (9) (a) of the statutes is renumbered 11.05 (9).

10 SECTION 5. 11.05 (9) (b) of the statutes is repealed.

11 SECTION 6. 11.06 (11) of the statutes is repealed.

12 SECTION 7. 11.24 (1m) of the statutes is repealed.

13 SECTION 8. 11.26 (12m) of the statutes is repealed.

14 SECTION 9. 11.38 (1) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

15 11.38 (1) (a) 3. No corporation or association specified in subd. 1. may expend
16 more than a combined total of $500 annually for solicitation of contributions to a fund
17 established under subd. 2. ~~or to a conduit.~~

18 SECTION 10. 11.50 (2) (b) 5. of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 919

1 11.50 (2) (b) 5. The financial reports filed by or on behalf of the candidate as
2 of the date of the spring or September primary, or the date that the special primary
3 is or would be held, if required, indicate that the candidate has received at least the
4 amount provided in this subdivision, from contributions of money, other than loans,
5 made by individuals, which have been received during the period ending on the date
6 of the spring primary and July 1 preceding such date in the case of candidates at the
7 spring election, or the date of the September primary and January 1 preceding such
8 date in the case of candidates at the general election, or the date that a special
9 primary will or would be held, if required, and 90 days preceding such date or the
10 date a special election is ordered, whichever is earlier, in the case of special election
11 candidates, which contributions are in the aggregate amount of $100 or less, and
12 which are fully identified and itemized as to the exact source thereof. ~~A contribution~~
13 ~~received from a conduit which is identified by the conduit as originating from an~~
14 ~~individual shall be considered a contribution made by the individual.~~ Only the first
15 $100 of an aggregate contribution of more than $100 may be counted toward the
16 required percentage. For a candidate at the spring or general election for an office
17 identified in s. 11.26 (1) (a) or a candidate at a special election, the required amount
18 to qualify for a grant is 5% of the candidate's authorized disbursement limitation
19 under s. 11.31. For any other candidate at the general election, the required amount
20 to qualify for a grant is 10% of the candidate's authorized disbursement limitation
21 under s. 11.31.

4 treatment of contributions of money made by individuals or organizations
5 acting as conduits.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, if an individual or organization receives a political contribution consisting of money and transfers the contribution to another individual or organization without exercising discretion as to the amount transferred and the individual to whom or the organization to which the transfer is made, the contribution is considered to be made by the original contributor for purposes of reporting by the ultimate recipient. The contribution is also treated as an individual contribution for purposes of determining contribution limitations and qualifying contributions for public grants. The individual or organization making the transfer is called a "conduit" under the law. In most cases, a conduit is required to register and file campaign finance reports unless the conduit does not transfer any contributions to candidates or to personal campaign, legislative campaign, or political party committees.

This bill treats a contribution of money transferred by a conduit as a contribution from the conduit rather than from the individual contributor for purposes of reporting by the ultimate recipient and for purposes of determining contribution limitations and qualifying contributions for public grants. Thus, under this bill, a contribution of money that is transferred by a conduit that is a committee is included within the overall limitation on contributions that a candidate may derive from public grants and from contributions received from committees. In addition, these contributions may not be used to qualify for a public grant.

ASSEMBLY BILL 919

1 11.50 (2) (b) 5. The financial reports filed by or on behalf of the candidate as
2 of the date of the spring or September primary, or the date that the special primary
3 is or would be held, if required, indicate that the candidate has received at least the
4 amount provided in this subdivision, from contributions of money, other than loans,
5 made by individuals, which have been received during the period ending on the date
6 of the spring primary and July 1 preceding such date in the case of candidates at the
7 spring election, or the date of the September primary and January 1 preceding such
8 date in the case of candidates at the general election, or the date that a special
9 primary will or would be held, if required, and 90 days preceding such date or the
10 date a special election is ordered, whichever is earlier, in the case of special election
11 candidates, which contributions are in the aggregate amount of $100 or less, and
12 which are fully identified and itemized as to the exact source thereof. A contribution
13 received from a conduit which is identified by the conduit as originating from an
14 individual shall be considered a contribution made by the individual. Only the first
15 $100 of an aggregate contribution of more than $100 may be counted toward the
16 required percentage. For a candidate at the spring or general election for an office
17 identified in s. 11.26 (1) (a) or a candidate at a special election, the required amount
18 to qualify for a grant is 5% of the candidate's authorized disbursement limitation
19 under s. 11.31. For any other candidate at the general election, the required amount
20 to qualify for a grant is 10% of the candidate's authorized disbursement limitation
21 under s. 11.31.

Section #. 11.12 (6) (c) of the statutes, as created by ²⁰⁰¹~~2003~~ Wisconsin Act 109, is repealed and recreated to read:

11.12 (6) (c) No committee identified under s. 11.05 (3) (c) as a special interest committee, ~~other~~ ^{than a conduit,} may make any disbursement or incur any obligation to which this paragraph applies unless the committee has filed a report under this paragraph concerning that disbursement or obligation. This paragraph applies only to disbursements made or obligations incurred for the purpose of making a communication during the period beginning on the 30th day preceding a general, special, or spring election and ending on the date of that election advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for a state office specified in s. 11.31 (1) (a) to (de), (e), or (f) at that election, or any such candidate who seeks a nomination for such an office at a primary election, or for the purpose of making a communication described in s. 11.01 (16) (a) 3., without cooperation or consultation with a candidate or agent or authorized committee of a candidate who is supported or whose opponent is opposed, and not in concert with or at the request or suggestion of such a candidate, agent, or committee. Each report required under this paragraph shall be filed with the board, with each candidate whose name is certified to appear on the ballot for the office in connection with which the communication is to be made, and the political party under whose name each such candidate appears on the ballot, if any, on a form prescribed by the board for this purpose. The report shall be filed by electronic mail or facsimile transmission no later than the 31st day preceding the general, special, or spring election to which the report relates. Each report shall indicate the name of each candidate who will be supported or whose opponent will be opposed and the total disbursements to be made and obligations incurred for such a purpose with regard to that candidate during the period covered by the report. Within 24 hours after receiving a report, the board shall notify each candidate whose name is certified to appear on the ballot for the office in connection with which the communication is to be made of the report.
